

Forecasts of cooler weather and lower than average delivery of wind provided support for the Mar-20 contract and saw it close up 0.55p/th to ~23p/th during Wednesday's session.

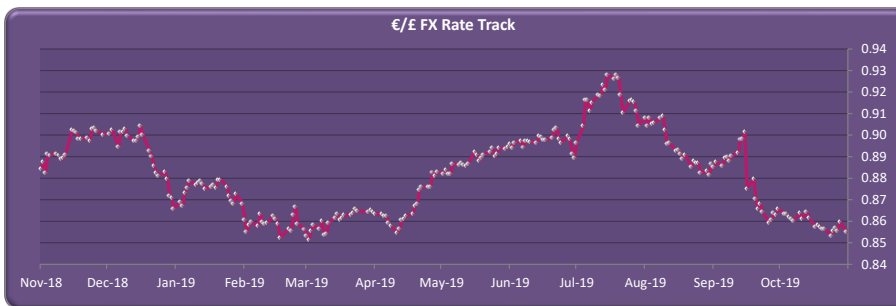

Summer-20 rose 0.4p/th to close at 22.7p/th.

Oil continued to move downwards, on the back of confirmation of further worldwide cases of the coronavirus; losses of 1% were experienced by the end of the session.
